CHAPTER NEWS

NECA Field Leadership Essentials Training

The Chapter will be hosting three consecutive days of in-person “Field Leadership Essentials” training in Anchorage on March 27th, 28th, and 29th. For information regarding topics to be covered during each of these one day/8-hour sessions, please see the attachment included in this email.

If you have Foremen, future Foremen, or other individuals that you would like to attend this newly developed and launched training, please let the Chapter know names of the individuals, contact information, as well as the day of the training you would like them to attend. A $100.00 deposit will be required to secure a seat, and deposits will be refunded to AK NECA Members once attendance in the class has been confirmed.

Also, there will be limited opportunities for individuals to become Train-the-Trainer certified during this training. If you have someone you would like to sponsor for that Certification, please let the Chapter know that as well.

Please get your request in ASAP as seats are limited and will be reserved on a “first-come, first-serve” basis. Also, further information will be forthcoming as we get closer to the actual dates of training.

ELECTRICAL CONTRACTOR Launches Mental Health Hub

There is a rising understanding of the need for mental health support in the construction industry. The CDC considers construction workers at a higher risk of suicide than workers in most other industries. ELECTRICAL CONTRACTOR has published numerous articles that discuss mental health concerns and how the construction industry is addressing them. These articles have been assembled into a resource page, which you can access now.
